The following motion was submitted at the meeting of the Council on 9th September 2009 by Councillors P. M. McDonald and S. P. Shannon. The Chairman agreed to refer the matter to Cabinet for consideration:

“Many residents throughout the district are being affected by the credit crunch and are going through difficult times. Each year the council tax is increased making the financial situation for many even worse. Therefore this Council takes immediate measures to reduce salaries of a hundred thousand a year or more by twenty five per cent.”
